A Greeting from the President of the Church

JAMES E. WAGNER

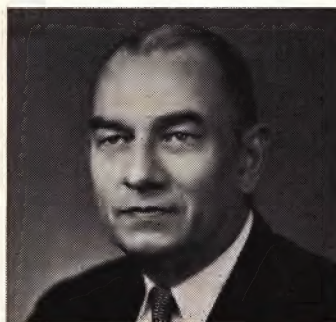

THERE is more than meets the eye on the pages of this Year Book.

Its statistical tables, synod by synod, church by church, will show that in 1959 our communicant membership reached a new high and that the giving of our people for missions, world service, and other benevolences was more generous than ever before.

The Directory of the Evangelical and Reformed Church will show that more than three hundred of our ministers and lay men and women serving on boards, commissions, auxiliary organizations, committees, and official delegations, have shared in determining the policies and programs of our Church; and the Directory of the United Church of Christ will show similarly how perhaps twice that many ministers and lay people have served as leaders in the larger fellowship to which we now belong.

Underlying our increased giving is the work of our Commission on Stewardship and the Allied Enlistment program conducted by our Department of United Promotion. Underlying our growth in membership is the influence of our Commission on Evangelism with its Teaching-Reaching-Preaching missions and our Board of National Missions with its establishment of new churches in cooperation with synodical Committees on National Missions. And these agencies most immediately involved in our growth in giving and membership have been aided one way or another by other agencies of the Church including the Churchmen's Brotherhood and the Women's Guild.

On the basis of a rather crude analogy in which the Evangelical and Reformed Church with its approximately 2,750 local churches would be likened to a great corporation with 2,750 "retail outlets" all over the country "from border to border and coast to coast"—it is a fact worth pondering that an enterprise of this size and scope is serviced by a full-time staff of scarcely one hundred people. That number would include agency executives and staff assistants, all the full-time synod presidents and the handful of full-time assistants in synod offices.

Is there any comparable secular enterprise where so much for so many is done by so few for so little?

Beyond all these, the strength and success of our life and work and witness depend on the leadership and devotion of our ministers, less than 1900 of whom are engaged in the parish ministry.

On other occasions I have voiced or written my heartfelt tribute to the rank-and-file of the laity of our churches. This year as I write the greeting to accompany the new Year Book I ask the Church to see, beneath the statistical story these pages tell, something of the debt we all owe to executives, staff assistants, and synod presidents who serve us so well.

Remember their number, scarcely a hundred in all. Remember them, now and then if not regularly, in your prayers. Remember them as, pastor or lay member, you undertake in your church the program through which, as one communion in the household of God, we seek to serve and witness, at home and abroad, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ and for His kingdom's sake.

Corporate Titles of the Boards and Institutions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

HEREWITH are given the corporate or charter names, together with the headquarters addresses, of the Boards and institutions of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

This information has been secured from the executives of these agencies by Dr. John W. Mueller, Counselor of the Church, and the editor of the Year Book in response to numerous requests from persons who had need of it in connection with writing wills or drawing up other legal papers.

In every instance the words "of the Evangelical and Reformed Church" should be added to the title. In cases where Boards or institutions are familiarly known by a popular name instead of by the corporate title this popular name is shown in parentheses. The addresses given are those of the executive offices of the Board and institutions listed.

Form for Bequests

Persons desiring to remember the Church or any of its boards, institutions or agencies in their last will and testament are encouraged and advised to secure the services of a lawyer or of some other qualified individual. This is advisable because of the variations in state laws governing bequests to religious and charitable agencies. Otherwise, the intent of the testator may be defeated.

The greatest care should be exercised so that all bequests are made in the manner prescribed by law. The following form for general bequests is suggested in the event that no lawyer is available for counsel:—

"I hereby give and bequeath to the Evangelical and Reformed Church, of which Mr. Charles H. Lockyear, St. Louis, Missouri, is the treasurer, for the use of (insert here the particular cause which shall receive the bequest, or if no preference is made, this clause in the will may be omitted) the sum of Dollars, and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be sufficient discharge for my Executor."

In designating the beneficiary of a bequest, it is of the utmost importance that the testator or his counsel use the official title of the administrative body, and the correct name and location of the board, institution or agency to be remembered.

The corporate titles of our Church boards, agencies and institutions may be found on pages 31-32 of this Year Book.

Ordinations

LISTED below are the names of those who, out of the beginnings of their Christian nurture in home and church responded to God's claim in Christ and offered themselves for the Christian ministry. Each has completed his years of preparation in order to meet the standards set by the Evangelical and Reformed Church, and in the sacred Rite of Ordination has been set apart by the Church for the work of the ministry.

Names and Stations of Missionaries of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

THE following lists contain the names and addresses of the missionaries representing the Church in the areas where we are established. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the willing cooperation on the part of the executives and other representatives of the Board of International Missions in presenting this complete personnel.

The post office addresses of the ordained ministers as well as those of the appointees have again been included. They are worthy of close study on the part of everyone. The names in italics after the addresses of the missionaries represent the stations at which they are working. These names are not part of the post office addresses.

The Good Samaritan Home for the Aged

Good Samaritan Hospital, Inc., 5200 South Broadway, St. Louis 11, Missouri
Rev. Hermann E. Koenig, Superintendent

Founded in 1856 by the late Rev. Louis E. Nollau, the Good Samaritan Home is the oldest benevolent institution affiliated with the E. and R. Church. Originally established as a hospital, it has served as a Home for the Aged since 1905. A new Home, picturesquely located on a Mississippi River bluff, was erected at 5200 South Broadway. This building, pictured above, will accommodate some 140 residents. Your generous support of our building fund, as well as of our operating budget, will make it possible for the Good Samaritan to continue the second century of its Kingdom work with an enlarged and improved program of service.

"65 years of Christian Welfare to Children and Aged"

BENSENVILLE HOME SOCIETY

A continuing program of service to children in foster homes.

AN EXPANDING PROGRAM OF CARE FOR THE AGED

Pleasant residential units are in operation at Bensenville, Freeport and Peotone, where ambulatory aged persons from those areas may receive care while continuing familiar community relationships. Nursing care service is available on the Bensenville campus. The loyal support of our friends is necessary to insure progressive service to our aged family.

Bequests, legacies, memorials and special gifts will enrich the lives of needy older people and children . . . by supporting such an agency as the Bensenville Home Society, you will be making a great contribution to Christian welfare. Memorials to departed loved ones will help us immeasurably in this great undertaking.

The Rev. A. J. Munsterman, D.D., Superintendent
Mrs. Kathryn I. Gilliam, Director of Social Service
Box 338, Bensenville, Illinois—Phone: POrter 6-0716

The Home is licensed by the State, and the program endorsed by

A bequest in a will or a gift in grateful appreciation of God's many blessings will enrich the donor and provide for the continuing ministry of these Homes to the aged.

Sharing Household Duties in simple methods and informal fellowship.

THE WORK of the Emmaus personnel may be said to be a venture in Christian living with the mentally deficient, of all ages, including the mentally senile. The Emmaus Homes are little communities adapted to the needs of those who have never had or who have lost the powers or abilities which are the heritage of the average person. Personnel for these locations is recruited primarily from the churches. Send your gifts or offer yourself. There is a dire need for attendants, men and women. Write to the superintendent for information regarding positions.

HOFFMAN HOME FOR CHILDREN

R. D. 1, Littlestown, Pennsylvania

Our child care program is in the process of being revitalized to meet the needs of the children we are serving. We recognize that institutionalized children have many problems which can be helped in a therapeutic environment. We are striving to meet this Christian challenge through program improvement. Our goal shall be to help the child and the family that they may once more become united.

We are serving children in the name of Christ through the support of the friends of the Hoffman Home family.

Deceased Ministers of the Church

From January 1 to December 31, 1959

To Him who is Lord and Head of the Church we give praise and sing our gratitude for all whom he calls in the glorious work of the Christian ministry. For those who answered His call to labor in His vineyard and who now have laid down their earthly tasks to enter into the joy of eternal life we give thanks. These, our brethren in Christ, are one with us forever. Their joy is made full; they know surely what we can comprehend only by faith. They stand in the very presence of God.

Our constant prayer is that many will enlist in God's holy service and fill the empty places left in the ranks by those who have received the crown of life.

Widows of Ministers

Evangelical and Reformed Church

EVERY effort has again been made to secure an accurate and complete list of the widows of ministers, together with their addresses. Inaccuracies, omissions, deaths, etc., should be reported to the office of The Rev. Sheldon E. Mackey, D.D., LL.D., Secretary, 616 Schaff Bldg., 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa. (It is the editorial policy not to include widows whose status has been changed through remarriage.)

Directors of Christian Education and Commissioned Workers

THE names and addresses of the Directors of Christian Education and other professional workers performing a ministry of Christian education in Evangelical and Reformed Churches are listed herewith. This is the listing made available by the Department of Leadership Education as of February 1, 1960.

Persons listed are qualified either by graduation from a recognized seminary with a degree of Master of Religious Education or a comparable degree, or by graduation with an A.B. degree from a college with a major in Christian education and/or service in a church for a period of years.

Eligible persons whose names do not appear here should inform the Board of Christian Education and Publication of their status. Additional information may be secured by addressing the Director of Leadership Education at 1505 Race Street, Philadelphia 2, Pa.

Commissioned workers other than those listed under "Directors of Christian Education" or those whose names appear under "Names and Stations of Missionaries" (pages ??) are listed herewith. Every effort has been made to make this listing as accurate as possible.

To these dedicated servants of the Church who labor in the name and spirit of Christ we express our gratitude.

Register of Ministers

As of May 1, 1960

The following list gives the name, post-office address, the place of theological preparation and the year of ordination of every minister of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, together with the names of candidates for ordination. It contains, as nearly as possible, all changes of addresses to date shown above. The Constitution of our Church and the actions of our judicatories make the Secretary of the Church responsible for all records of our ministers and congregations. That this register may be correct, every minister changing his address shall notify The Rev. Sheldon E. Mackey, D.D., LL.D., Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

Location of Churches

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the detailed location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint John, Saint Johns, and St. John's.

Please send notes of any error immediately to The Rev. Sheldon E. Mackey, D.D., LL.D., Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

Abbreviations: mi, miles; nr, near; N, north; E, east; S, south; W, west.

Rosters of the Synods

These Rosters are furnished by the Secretary of the Church, The Rev. Sheldon E. Mackey, D.D., LL.D., and have been corrected to May 1, 1960. Except for the latest changes they are correct according to information available. All changes of address or in the records of ministers and congregations must be sent to the Secretary of the Church. (By-Law 59j and k, and By-Law 91f and g.)

Designations of Ministers

CC—Evangelical and Reformed ministers serving Congregational Christian Churches
Ch—Chaplains in the Armed Forces
CO—Candidates for Ordination
D—Those in denominational work—Officers, secretaries, editors, presidents and professors in educational institutions, superintendents of benevolent institutions, of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

E—Emeriti, retired or disabled
FSP—Full-time synod president
G—In Christian service, but outside the Evangelical and Reformed Church
I—Inactive, in secular work
L—Licentiates
M—Missionaries abroad

Designations of Mission Churches

MC—Congregations thus designated are affiliated with and receive financial support from the Board of National Missions.

An asterisk (*) before the name of a minister or a congregation indicates that that minister or that congregation has not yet been received into full membership in our Church.

1959 STATISTICS OF CONGREGATIONS

EXPLANATION OF SYMBOLS

The asterisk (*) designates congregations which are affiliated and not in full membership with the Evangelical and Reformed Church. The symbol # indicates that congregations so marked returned no statistical report for 1959 and that the statistics used are those of a previous year, in cases where they are available. These congregational statistics went to press in April. Therefore, some of the pastors whose names appear are not the present incumbents. A more accurate and complete listing appears in the Rosters of the Synods.

Code in the first column indicates the population classification as reported by the congregation for the community in which the church is located: "A" indicates communities in areas classified by the United States Census Bureau as STANDARD METROPOLITAN STATISTICAL AREAS; "B" indicates communities NOT classified as STANDARD METROPOLITAN STATISTICAL AREAS; 1—population over 50,000; 2—from 25,000 to 50,000; 3—from 10,000 to 25,000; 4—from 5,000 to 10,000; 5—from 2,500 to 5,000; 6—from 1,000 to 2,500; 7—under 1,000; 8—open country. (See page 293 for listing of counties in STANDARD METROPOLITAN STATISTICAL AREAS.)

Standard Metropolitan Areas

Listed below are the Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas, prepared by the U. S. Bureau of Census. For easy reference the list is arranged according to states and the counties within each state which make up the Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas. Counties starred (*) contain Evangelical and Reformed congregations.

In order that the sociological data—occupation, age, race, etc.—reported by the census concerning these areas may be related to the church, it is proposed that in subsequent annual congregational reports, churches report their location by counties making up the Standard Metropolitan Statistical Areas.

The Prophet Motive

The "Prophet Motive" is the fixed star by which the Fund has steered its course. Dominated by this idea for 200 years, the Fund begins its third century, confident in the soundness of such a program. "What is good for the prophet, is good for the Fund" — this is the way this distinguished institution has thought.

Marvelous to relate this motive has worked. Far from suffering by its idealism, the Fund's financial stability, always impressive, is more firmly established than ever.

All profits go to the prophets. The clergyman has shared regularly in the Fund's wealth. No claim has ever been disputed in all its history.

Any prophet can enjoy the profits by applying to:

Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Company

BURLINGTON IOWA

The Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Company of Burlington, Iowa, has, for seventy years, served the congregations, institutions, pastors and members of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. During these years has saved its policyholders many dollars in insurance premiums. The company has at all times paid its losses promptly and to the satisfaction of its policyholders. All policies are non-assessable.

The company invests all surplus earnings in government and municipal bonds and other approved investments for the protection of its policyholders. All amounts over and above our retention are reinsured with other reliable companies, this also provides additional protection for both the company and its policyholders.

The merger between the Congregational Christian Church and the Evangelical and Reformed Church has brought about a larger field for our company to serve. We invite the Congregational Christian Churches, institutions, pastors and members to avail themselves of our liberal rates and protection. We especially invite the pastors to give us an opportunity to let us tell them about the rates and policy we have for the pastors.

All inquiries will be cheerfully answered when writing to the secretary, J. Milton Rasche.
